5. Leads and Prospect Data

Leads sold on Cyber Troopers are intended for telemarketing to help you grow your MLM business. We do not guarantee sales or results. You should expect a portion of the leads to contain disconnected numbers, wrong numbers, or unresponsive individuals.

You are fully responsible for how you use lead data. Any personal or sensitive information collected from prospects (e.g., SSNs, billing info) must be sent directly to the MLM company and must not be stored on Cyber Troopers servers.

6. Payments

All payments for leads are processed securely via Stripe. After successful payment, leads will be loaded into your account. All sales are final unless otherwise stated. No refunds will be issued for invalid leads or lack of results.

7. Content Ownership

All training materials, videos, PDFs, and content available through the site are the intellectual property of Cyber Troopers or its content providers. You may not reproduce, distribute, or resell any content without permission.

8. Termination

We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your account at our discretion, especially if you violate these terms or engage in behavior harmful to the community.
